

Lab Researcher IV

Join a genetics laboratory that studies genetic, genomic and epigenetic regulation of asthma, interstitial lung disease, and innate immunity. The successful candidate will have a BS degree with a minimum of 4 years experience in laboratory research with expertise in either sequencing or genotyping. We value diversity & offer an excellent work environment and benefits package. To apply, please go to www.njccareers.org.

EVIDENCE OF QUALIFICATIONS:

Education: Bachelor's of Science degree in biology, chemistry or other basic science.

Experience: Four (4) or more years of progressively technical experience in general laboratory methodologies. A Master's degree in a specified basic science field will suffice for two (2) years experience. A demonstrated thorough knowledge of: the field in which the work is performed; knowledge of related sciences as they apply to the particular area of specific interest or study; skills and techniques characteristic of the research and investigations covered by the assigned duties and responsibilities; and an ability to assemble, organize and prepare reports requiring analysis and interpretation of data.

- OR - Any equivalent combination of Education and Experience.

Special Skills: Good interpersonal, communication and organizational skills. Good command of the English language, both written and verbal.

A cornerstone in the Denver healthcare community, National Jewish Medical & Research Center is a non-profit, non-sectarian institution.

National Jewish offers a complete benefits package to eligible employees including:

- Medical, Dental and Vision Coverage
- 403(b) Retirement Plan
- Flexible Spending Accounts
- Life Insurance
- Long-Term Disability Coverage
- Long-Term Care Coverage
- Employee Assistance Program
- Tuition Reimbursement (after 6 months of employment)
- Legal Plan
- Free Parking

To apply on-line and learn why we have been a place of care and discovery for over 106 years visit www.njccareers.org