

Gather with biotech human resources professionals in Chicago for the 2010 BIO Human Resources Conference on Wednesday, May 5 through Friday, May 7, 2010. Connect with HR leaders and decision makers to learn real strategies and techniques for improving your work and your workplace – all in one place.

Our program is designed to deliver key insights into global issues, organization and development challenges, strategic issues and best practices from fellow industry professionals. It will also provide you opportunities to collaborate and meet biotech human resource professionals from all over the country.

You will build and expand your expertise in the technical and business areas of human resources with sessions along these 3 tracks:

Track 1: Strategies for Adapting to Constraints

Track 2: Transforming and Cultivating Corporate Cultures

Track 3: Optimizing Talent

Keynote Announced!

Benjamin S. Carson, Sr., M.D. Ben Carson will be the keynote speaker at the opening plenary session on Thursday, May 6, 2010. Come and be inspired by his motivational presentation---he'll share his childhood dream of becoming a physician, the numerous challenges he faced, his career as a neurosurgeon, and his philosophies.

Ben Carson, Sr., M.D. is a full professor of neurosurgery, oncology, plastic surgery and pediatrics at the Johns Hopkins School of Medicine where he has directed pediatric neurosurgery at the Johns Hopkins Children's Center for over a quarter of a century. His four books, Gifted Hands, THINK BIG, The Big Picture and Take the Risk: Learning to Identify, Chose and Live with Acceptable Risk (January 2008), provide inspiration and insight for leading a successful life. In 2009, the movie entitled Gifted Hands: The Ben Carson Story premiered on TNT and is based on his memoir.
