HEADLINE: HKH'S CORPORATE AND SECURITIES PRACTICE ADDS EXPERIENCE AND DEPTH.

Hensley Kim & Holzer (www.hkh-law.com), a Denver-based law firm providing expert legal counsel representing companies of all sizes in the areas of business, securities, intellectual property, litigation and real estate law, enhances its Corporate and Securities practice with the addition of the Corporate and Securities group from the Denver office of Solomon Pearl Blum Heyman & Stich LLP, which closed its doors at the end of May 2008. Clifford R. Pearl, former managing partner of Solomon Pearl's Denver office, advises companies and individuals on an extensive range of business, corporate and securities law matters. His practice emphasizes corporate and securities law representation, including domestic and foreign companies in public and private securities offerings and merger and acquisition transactions. Mr. Pearl graduated Boston University School of Law in 1984 and received his M.B.A from the University of Colorado at Denver in 1989. Timothy R. Spiel's practice emphasizes mergers and acquisitions and corporate, securities, and entity formation law. Mr. Spiel received his B.A. with honors from Northwestern University, Evanston, IL, in 1993. He graduated Magna Cum Laude with his J.D. from Tulane Law School, New Orleans, Louisiana in 1998.
