

Russell Fox
Assistant Principal
P-TECH Program Leader
Frederick High School

Russ Fox is the program leader for P-TECH at Frederick High School. He is also the assistant principal at the school. In his role he works to recruit students, support teachers, and secure funding and supplies for the program to ensure student success.

Prior to his role as the program leader and assistant principal, Russ was a high school teacher for 9 years. Russ has his teaching certificate and Bachelors from The University of Colorado, his Masters in Linguistically Diverse Education from Colorado State University, and his Ed.D in Equitable School Leadership from The University of Colorado, Denver.