Introduction:

Jordan Haas is currently working as a pharmaceutical headhunter (or recruiter) with Green Key Resources. He has a deep passion for connecting with and mentoring top-notch talent in the pharmaceutical, biotech, and medical device industries!

Academically, Jordan graduated with a B.S. from Indiana University in 2017 and an M.S. from IUPUI in 2018. Before beginning his career as a recruiter, he worked for 1 ½ years at Eli Lilly & Co – a world class pharmaceutical company. His experience at Lilly has provided him with a unique perspective, and aided his ability to connect with folks in this industry.

Jordan has now been working as a recruiter for 2 years and provides services to several different corners of the industry, including: Regulatory Affairs | Biometrics | Medical Writing | Clinical Research | Pre-clinical R&D. His daily responsibilities include reviewing resumes, mentoring candidates, and providing insight into the job market. Jordan enjoys interacting with professionals near and far, from the 'Biotech Bay' in San Francisco, locally here in Colorado, and all the way out to "Pharm Country" near Boston

If you are interested in a career in the pharmaceutical, biotech, or medical device world, please do not hesitate to reach out to Jordan via any of the various contact links posted above! He is very active on LinkedIn, the ideal social media platform to find him.
